

Amanda's birthday

Hi everybody, my name is Amanda. I am 8 years old(2020). Today I am going to tell you what happened at my birthday this time. Okay So it starts at a fine morning, so I woke up then I rush to the bathroom to brush my teeth, toilet and wipe my face with water. Then my mom said my best friend, Danyan is coming, I was excited as a puppy! So, me and my mom went to a nearby McDonald to wait for Danyan. Soon Danyan came with her mom too. I wave to her as hard as I can. Then, she said goodbye to her mom and joined me and my mom eating breakfast.

After we ate, me, my mom and Danyan went towards my home. Because mom still needs to work from home, me and Danyan went to play. First, because it is my birthday so Danyan will give me some presents made from her! She gave me two birthday cards, one is an activity card and another one is birthday card, all made by herself! I was impress as a teacher! After I saw the presents, we played fun games. We were joyful. We don't really be together a lot because she stays at Woodlands and I stay at Yew Tee.

Soon my other friend, Hanlu is coming. She is my classmate, she lives not far from me. She lives at Yew Tee too! Mother told me to play along when Hanlu comes. It was the day that Hanlu and Danyan first met! I was excited. A while later Hanlu came, I introduced each of them. Then Hanlu showed me her presents. It was an art panting! There is chalks black board (but it is very big that it actually can be pasted on a wall!) there is magnetic shapes and others more! Because I had a none magnetic white board and black board so I just try to use the chalk to test it. It worked! We were happy. Hanlu and Danyan are being friends already too! I am happy about that.

A little later my dad is coming home. He went to work for a little while only. On his way back he was buying McDonald! And he called my mom's phone and ask what we want to eat. Just on time dad came back. We grabbed the food and start eating lunch. It was tasty and yummy. After finishing lunch, me and my friends went to play. After a while, dad asked us if we want to go to play outside. We agreed so I put on my skates and brought my scooter for them to play. Not after a while we went down the condominium and play.

YOU WILL RECEIVE:

Soon it was afternoon, so dad suggested to do the barbecue! We helped dad to take the things down for the barbecue. Out of the blue, it had started raining heavily. But the thing is, we are separated from dad! Dad was at home and we are at the barbecue. It was a long time. But we played games when we're waiting the weather to change. Finally, it stopped. When I looked through the sky, fluffy white clouds floated across the clear blue sky. The fresh air was good. Suddenly a familiar person walk to us. It was dad!

After we finished taking the foods to the barbecue, we play with our skates and scooter. When playing, I fell down on my butt! Hey it's not funny, because I fell down VERY hard. Wa wa wa! Do you know that the pain went away in 3 or 4 days ?!? So, they helped me to stood up. They helped me go towards the chair. And we played some games like: rock paper scissors and some riddles. Oh right, and we also bought some drinks and snacks. They were yummy. Oh yeah! I also remember that Isabella was there during my birthday! She was me and Danyan's kindergarten friend. She lives near the condo playground.

Then, my mother came down. So I didn't need my friends help anymore. They went and play with Isabella and her dog. Just nice, my teachers so as my mom friends came over. Let me introduce them to you. One is my teacher, 程老师(cheng lao shi), she is very tall. The other one is name 孙老师. She bought gifts to! 程老师 gave a locker and 孙老师(sun lao shi) gave a chain! I like it both of it very much.

Hmm... me and my friends smelt barbecue! Yay! My dad was cooking the meat in the barbecue! After one meat is finished cooking everyone wanted to grab it because it was nice.

It was fun during my birthday. My cake and others are here! I told my mom to order a mermaid cake, small mermaid cupcake and a small chocolate cake. In a sudden, people I know are coming! I didn't know they are coming! It was like they planned to come! There were more gifts to receive.

It was evening when they come. I did not know what had happened but there was so many people came and like there was a crowd. I was shocked. I was surprised. But at last the boys just kept playing..... Which is quite annoying.

No wait the boys did not do that. They was chasing the girls(including me), all over. But sometimes we hide from them and discuss how to revenge them.

Finally me, Danyan and Hanlu opened the birthday cake. We sang the birthday song. "Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you, happy birthday to Amanda, happy birthday to you!"

Yay! I blew out the candles. (I forgot to wish. oopsies!!) Then we cut the cake for everyone to eat. Yum! Some ate so fast until they ate another plate of cake. Almost everybody enjoyed the cake!

Ahh. We are full. Then our parents started chatting. So we played. Then the boys were annoying again..

At the end, I remembered that it was 9:00 or 10:00. It was time to go home. But first, Hanlu and Danyan went to my house to pick up their things. I don't remember who was it that was angry because they didn't want to go home. Just in a few minutes we all say goodbye to each and another. Now it's time for us to say..

Goodbye and see you next time!
